Community Service

200+ Hours of Volunteering

2019-2023

From planning and running camp games in the sovereign nation of the Cheyenne River, to finding creative solutions on how to catalogue and manage non-perishable food in multiple food cupboards; Contributing to local and distant communities has not only allowed myself to develop deeper empathy for people with different walks of life, but develop my creative thinking and problem solving skills with a goal of creating a positive impact.
